Teaching Diary (TD) 1	I found that the students were very active because they were on Bahasa class	DOC/1/CM-DDS/TD1
	There were only 3 males in the class and the rest was girl
	I knew this was not an easy material because poem is not something that you could mastered by only reading the book. I realized it was about the deeply understanding.
	Some of my students were so noisy and did not wanted to respect me as a teacher at that time	DOC/1/CM-DDS/ TD1
	Some of my students felt shy when I asked them to give an example, to come forward, and rise a hand.
	Some of my students were playing their gadgets and talked with their friends.	DOC/1/CM-DDS/ TD1
	Some of omy students often interrupted me as a teacher, and singing when I was explaining the material
	My students were in Bahasa class so I thought that's why they were so active and like to talked that much
Teaching Diary (TD) 2	Usually my GPL and I consulted the material first, in order to make the right composition of my RPP, however I did not have any consultation because my GPL was busy the days before.

	Some of my students felt shy when I asked them to give an example, to come forward, and rise a hand.
	Some male students liked to talk loudly and disturb the class	DOC/1/CM-DDS/TD2
	Some of my students were playing their gadgets and talking with their friends.
Teaching Diary (TD) 3	Some of my students could not make the conversation like the example that I explained
	They (students) were not familiar with English language, and less of practice and comprehension	DOC/1/ELT-LTE/TD3
Teaching Diary (TD) 4	I still found that the students were very active because they were on Bahasa class.
	Some of my students felt shy when I asked them to give an example, to come forward, and rise a hand.
	Some of my students were so noisy and interrupted what I said	DOC/1/CM-DDS/TD4
Reflective Essay (RE)	Although not separated from feelings of worried because it could not be denied that students acted less fun towards teacher trainee...
