

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

Teaching using pictures makes it easier for students to help them imagine the story. Students feel interest when they doing some task that makes them engage each other in the classroom. Being a good teacher needs many methods and ways to teach so that it doesn't feel boring. To be a good teacher should be more patient and practice. It reduce the level of nervous and feeling afraid to speak in front of the class. Teacher should calm down and be more confident when speaking in the classroom. Being a pre-service teacher is not easy because student may not treat us like a real teacher. In conclusion, there is a positive reaction from student teaching speaking skill using pictures-series.

