1. Allah SWT who has given His mercy, health, convenience and every single blessing to the researcher to finish this thesis.
2. My dearest parents, Darlena and Suwartija, I would not finish this thesis if it wasn't because of endless supports and believes that my parents give to me. All kindness had been taught to me with gentleness and love, which led me to become a better person for myself and for everyone surround me. All lessons that both my parents showed to me had lead me to become more aware that becoming a good person is not a choice, but a must. Moreover, I want to thank to my beloved parents for all the sacrifices they made for me to make sure that I got my best on my education, which means a lot for me. A whole page of this thesis is not enough to describe how much my parents really mean to me.

3. My big brother, Aryeswara Muhammad Adam Giritantra, who give the most influence during my university time, the one who boost up my level both in mentally and materially, and also the advice to me so that I can finish my undergraduate on time.
