

ABSTRAK

Amerika Serikat merupakan negara penghasil emisi terbesar nomor dua di dunia. Pernyataan kemunduran Amerika Serikat dari Paris Agreement sangat di sayangkan oleh beberapa pihak. Termasuk oleh sektor industri di Amerika Serikat. Meskipun Amerika Serikat telah menyatakan mundur dari Paris Agreement, namun banyak dari sektor industri Amerika tetap berkomitmen dengan Paris Agreement sebagai rezim internasional. Melalui tinjauan Role Redefinition dan Socialization Effects akan di analisa terkait pengaruh konstruksi dari berbagai aktor terhadap komitmen sektor industri. Adapun rumusan masalah dari penelitian ini yaitu Bagaimana tinjauan Role Redefinition dan Socialization Effects menjelaskan pengaruh konstruktif dari berbagai aktor terhadap komitmen sektor industri dan bisnis di Amerika Serikat terhadap Paris Agreement? Melalui teori dan pertanyaan tersebut penelitian ini akan menjelaskan bagaimana proses konstruksi dari berbagai pihak dalam mempengaruhi komitmen sektor industri terhadap Paris Agreement.

Kata Kunci: Amerika Serikat, Paris Agreement, Role Redefinition, Socialization Effects, Rezim Internasional, Sektor Industri.

ABSTRACT

United States is the second largest emitter in the world. USA's statement towards its withdrawal from Paris Agreement is regretted by several parties. Including by the industrial sector in the United States. Although the United States has withdrawn from the Paris Agreement, many of the American industrial Sectors remain committed to the Paris Agreement as an international regime. Through the Role Redefinition and Socialization Effects view will help the analyze on the Commitment of the industrial sector. The main question in this research is, How the Role Redefinition and Socialization Effects view explain the constructive influence from various of actors on the Commitment of the Industrial and business sectors in the United States towards the Paris Agreement?. Through these theory and question, this research will explain how the construction process of various parties in influencing the commitment of the industrial sector towards the Paris Agreement.

Keywords: United States, Paris Agreement, Role Redefinition, Socialization Effects, International Regime, Industrial Sector.

