

ABSTRACT

Islamic banks in Indonesia is currently experiencing a very significant increase every year, it can be seen from UUS and BUS are present in Indonesia, with the increase in Islamic banking in Indonesia, this makes the public more familiar with Islamic financial system.

This paper discusses the influence of the financing of financing, Musharaka, and murabaha to the profitability of Islamic banking in Indonesia. Profitability measured by ROE (return on equality). The method used in this method is the analysis method of multiple linear OLS method.

Results from this study showed that the effect of the financing of financing, Musharaka, and murabaha significant effect on the profitability of Islamic banking in Indonesia.

Keywords: mudaraba, musharaka, murabaha, profitability and ROE